DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, 10, 14-18 and 20-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Krall (5,621,299).

Krall discloses a rechargeable battery power supply with load voltage sensing selectable output voltage and a wrist rest in Fig. 1. A first circuit converting an AC to DC converter 63, a second circuit for converting DC to DC converter 35, a third circuit filter 49, fourth circuit 65 and Fig. 7 shows the program module.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 12, 13 and 19 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Yilmaz et al. (5,715,156).

Yilmaz et al. disclose the claimed invention except for the range of output voltage. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the range of output voltage, since it has been held that where the general conditions of a claim disclosed in the prior art, discovering the optimum or workable involves only routine skill in the art. In re Aller, 105 USPQ 233.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments filed 5/10/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. In response to applicant's argument that the references fail to show certain features of applicant's invention, it is noted that the features upon which applicant relies (i.e., common single connector) are not recited in the rejected claim(s). Although the claims are interpreted in light of the specification, limitations from the specification are not read into the claims. See In re Van Geuns, 988 F.2d 1181, 26 USPQ2d 1057 (Fed. Cir. 1993).

6. Applicant should submit an argument under the heading "Remarks" pointing out disagreements with the examiner's contentions. Applicant must also discuss the references applied against the claims, explaining how the claims avoid the references or distinguish from them.

Terminal Disclaimer

7. The terminal disclaimer filed on 5/10/04 has been reviewed and is accepted. The terminal disclaimer has been recorded.

Conclusion

8. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within

Art Unit: 2838

TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
